

Southeast Recreational Therapy Symposium April 5 – 7, 2023

Session Preview

Dialectical Behavioral Therapy and Recreational Therapy
Stephanie Salters, MA, CTRS

Assessment Made Possible: Find and Implement Standardized Assessments for Recreational Therapy
Amelia Saul, PhD, LRT, CTRS and Tania Santiago Perez, MS, CTRS

Program Adaptations in Recreational Therapy: Barriers and Importance of Social Engagement for Seniors
Sherry Houck, CTRS

Fun First: The Use of Therapeutic Recreation and Leisure Education to Promote Recovery for Teens with Functional Neurologic Disorders (FND)
Kyla Madden, MS, CTRS/CCLS

Flourishing within a Community: The Benefits of a Collaborative Relationship between Recreational Therapy and Inclusion Services
Brett Gordon, CPRP, Master of Science: Recreational Therapy Student at Indiana University and Casey King, CTRS

Recreational Therapy's Role While Working with Individuals Living with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder Symptoms
Marilyn Radatz, MS, CTRS

Adaptive Kayaking: How to implement an effective Recreational Therapy kayaking program for people of all ages and abilities
Carrie Gerdeman, CTRS; Level 1 Kayak Instructor; Recreation & Health Services Director at non-profit

2022 Ann James Award Winner

Complementary Alternative Medicine for all: A paradigm shift from Individual to Community based CAM within Recreation Therapy Practice
Olivia Mogab, CTRS, CDP, CMDCP

More Sessions to Come!!